

Care Homes in Rhondda Cynon Taf

Providing residential and nursing home care when living independently at home is no longer possible

Giving up your own home and moving to a care home is a big step to take. We may be able to help you to look at the choices and arrive at a decision. You will be expected to pay towards the care home's fees; the amount you pay will depend on your financial circumstances and is calculated on the basis of a national set of rules. You will be expected to pay something out of your regular income, the rest will depend on your savings and assets.

Care homes are either:

- Residential homes that provide support and personal care. Any medical or nursing care you may require from time to time will be provided through your doctor and carried out by a visiting district nurse.
- Nursing homes which must have qualified nursing staff on duty at all times. Some nursing homes can also provide personal care for residents who don't require regular medical or nursing care.

The National Health Service (NHS) will pay a contribution towards nursing home fees if you require nursing services from trained nursing staff while living there. If your health needs are considerable because of a long-term illness, severe disability or a complex physical or mental health problem, you may be assessed as needing Continuing NHS Healthcare. In this situation, the health service may purchase a place for you in a private home and pay your fees in full.

You can find more information about care home fees in our factsheet:
Paying for Residential or Nursing Care.

We have a duty to make sure that your care home is providing the care you require to meet all your needs during the time you live there. Our Review Team will look at your care home placement every year to make sure it continues to meet your needs.

Over the pages are lists of residential and nursing homes in Rhondda Cynon Taf, their contact details and the categories of care that they are registered to provide for their present and prospective residents.
