“The three girls that have been with us have been absolutely brilliant. They attended every week and carried out great sessions with the children and also helped and supported run after school clubs. They were fabulous throughout the whole placement” - Teacher

“Since taking part in this club I have joined Porth RFC and enjoy it”
School participant

“The partnership between USW Sport and Sport RCT actively encourages students across all years to enhance their employability potential, by gaining placement experience, before they graduate”
